MOB BREAKS INTO PRISON

OVERPOWERS THE GUARDS IN A DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO GET A MURDERER.

Evansville, Ind., July 6.—At 1 o'clock this morning this city is in the hands of a mob. Troops have been ordered out by the governor to protect the jail, which is surrounded by 2,000 men. Two negroes have been killed in the race riot which is rampant. The crowd around the jail, incensed at the murder of a patrolman by a negro, is shouting death to all negroes. The negro has been secretly removed to Vincennes, but the mob refuses to believe it and is trying to tear down the jail. Stone masons in the mob are chiseling out the bars of the windows and a battering ram is being used.

The steel bars of the jail windows could not withstand the rain of blows from the battering rams of the mob. At 1 o'clock this morning the crowd swarmed in and began a search for the murderer. Police Captain Brennecke tried to check their advance by turning the hose upon them. When he appeared at the window holding the nozzle, a rain of bullets was sent through the window. The captain retreated and no further attempt was made to keep the mob out. A mob of 200 white men heavily armed is now marching through the streets of the city where negroes would likely be found. Shots are heard constantly. It is reported that another negro has been shot in First street.

POPE LEO HOVERING ON BRINK OF DEATH

LIFE OF THE AGED PONTIFF BEING SLOWLY AWAY IN THE VATICAN AT ROME.

SUFFERS EXCRUCIATING PAIN

WONDERFUL VITALITY MAY ONCE MORE RESIST AND CONQUER ATTACK OF ILLNESS.

SPECULATION ALREADY RIFE

PROBABLE SUCCESSOR TO THE THRONE OF ST. PETER IS BEING DISCUSSED.

Rome, July 6.—(5 a. m.)—It is said at the vatican that the pope passed a very bad night. The congestion has spread to the left lung. Life is now sustained only by oxygen and stimulants. Baron Mayer, commander of the guard, says the pope's death is expected hourly.

Rome, July 6.—"God's will be done. Who would have believed it, when only ten days ago I was presiding over a public consistory?" murmured feebly Pope Leo as he felt himself late last evening sinking into a sleep which lasted about three hours until excruciating pain brought the dying pontiff back to consciousness. He groaned and complained of pains on both sides of the thorax. Tenderly Dr. Lippini, assisted by Pope Leo's valet, Pirocentra, and the physician's second assistant, De Castro, lifted the frail form and changing the position, succeeded in giving the patient some relief.

Though hovering on the brink of death, the life of the pontiff is still prolonged by means of strong stimulants and concentrated nourishment, and while he is still alive, his wonderful vitality may again resist and conquer the attack of this illness.

Soothed by Services.

Late last evening after the excitement of the ceremony of the last sacraments was over, the pope seemed less restless, partly soothed by the religious service and partly by a dose of chloral, which was given to him in considerable quantity.

The pontiff is lying on a small bed drawn up to a window overlooking the piazza of St. Peter's. The only picture in the room is an antique Madonna and the sole ornament a great ivory crucifix.

The interior of the vatican during the early hours of this morning testifies to the conviction that the passing of Pope Leo is very near. The courtyard of St. Damaso is filled with the carriages of the cardinals.

Cardinal Satolli drove to Rome from Frascati last evening, the beautiful carriage horses covered with dust and perspiration. In the Cortile are drawn up the carriages of the cardinals and of many notables. Servants and messengers hurry across the court with bundles of huge wax tapers and with the robes of the ecclesiastical dignitaries who are waiting within the palace. The ante-chambers of the palace were all through the night thronged with princes of the church, high noblemen and members of the diplomatic corps. Telegrams of inquiry have been received from several of the monarchs of Europe.

Speculation as to Leo's Successor.

All kinds of speculation is already in circulation as to the probable successor to the throne of St. Peter. Opinions are much divided owing to the many interests which will be affected according to the choice made by the sacred college.

The first question the cardinals will have to solve will be whether the conclave shall be held in Rome or outside of Italy. It is believed that the supporters of the idea of abandoning Rome will be even fewer than in the conclave held after the death of Pius IX, when thirty-two out of thirty-seven cardinals voted in favor of Rome.

The second question will be whether the next pope must be an Italian or a foreigner. It is generally believed that he will be an Italian because in view of the struggle between the church and the state since the fall of the temporal power and the constitution of united Italy all the clergy as well as the clerical party and even foreigners think that an Italian pope can protect better than a stranger the advance of the religious and political interests of the church.

Principal Candidates.

The candidates chiefly spoken of are Cardinal Rampolla and Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli. They are both representatives of the conservative policy, but are bitter antagonists of each other. Cardinal Rampolla is a very warm Francophile, while Cardinal Vannutelli is averse to the policy inaugurated by the present pontiff.

secretary of state of assuming the power to which he has adhered for fifteen years. The most probable liberal candidates are Cardinal Bishop Agliardi, and Cardinal Priest Satolli, whose breadth of views and love of modern ideas have been strengthened by his stay in America. The most probable religious candidates are Cardinal Priest Gotti, who would carefully avoid mixing up in politics, and Cardinal Priest Angelo di Pietro, who also has the desirable prerequisite of old age, being eighty-five years old. All these candidates live in Rome, but a strong party which might include a good many foreign cardinals advocate the election of a cardinal who is not a member of the curia, such as Cardinal Sato, patriarch of Venice Cardinal Ferrari, archbishop of Milan both intransigent, or Cardinal Capeclatro, archbishop of Cupau, who is perhaps the most learned of the sacred college and has conciliatory ideas.

First Ballot to Be a Test.

It is believed that the first ballot will be merely a test in which nobody will be elected, but it will be used to see which way the wind blows. It is considered certain that if Cardinal Rampolla sees the impossibility of succeeding to the pontifical throne he will throw all his strength in favor of an outsider, with a view to preserving his candidacy for the next conclave. Under these circumstances it is supposed that Cardinal Oreglia, dean of the sacred college, will be chosen, as he is seventy-five years old and lately had a serious attack of pneumonia.

All these plans, especially those drawn up by the cardinals of the curia, may be disturbed by the attitude of the cardinals coming from outside Rome, principally foreigners. Things might be pushed to such a point as to induce a portion of the Italians from the provinces to ally with the foreign cardinals, in which case alone there might be a possibility of a foreign pope. However, no French or Spanish cardinal could command the votes of the Germans or English or vice versa; so that if an opportunity should arise for a foreign cardinal to be chosen the most authoritative members of the college think that the only one who could obtain the prescribed majority is Cardinal Gibbons.

The pope's illness is said to be due to a cold contracted during his drive in the gardens of the vatican.

PACKING PLANT FIRE

PROPERTY VALUED AT A MILLION AND A HALF GOES UP IN SMOKE.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 6.—The main building of the Hammond Packing plant was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. The loss is estimated as high as $1,500,000. It is entirely covered by insurance. Two men lost their lives in the flames. One of them is reported to be Charles Miller, fire marshal at the plant. This could not be verified. Three men were injured, one of them seriously.

For a time the entire stockyards district was threatened. By hard work the Nelson Morris plant, 300 feet north of the Hammond plant, was saved and this saved the Swift plant, which is to the north of the Nelson Morris building.

The fire started a little after 2 o'clock. By 9 o'clock most of the building was gone. The greater danger was at 6 o'clock, when part of the north wall fell and the flames were shot towards the Morris building. Firemen were on the Nelson Morris building. Though dense smoke was blown on the buildings, the work of the firemen saved the building. Many firemen were volunteers. There were three of the city companies at the fire and the fire fighters were directed by Chief Kane of the city department.

The carcasses of 4,500 hogs, 1,800 cattle and 800 sheep were burned. Nearly 100,000 pounds of oleo were destroyed. The contents of the smokehouse were consumed. The entire north building, measuring 120 by 400 feet and ranging in height from five to seven stories, was gutted.

Saved With Difficulty.

It was with the greatest difficulty that the Swift building was saved. The origin of the fire is a mystery. There was no fire in the casing department in the eastern part of the building where the fire started. The flames were discovered about 2:30 o'clock by Charles Cullen, day watchman. He gave the alarm, but was so overcome by the smoke that he was almost suffocated.

Daniel Smalley, foreman of the car department, fell from the car sheds at the north end of the building and suffered serious injury. The fatalities occurred about 5 o'clock. By that time nearly all the buildings were on fire. A man with a hose, said to have been Miller, was seen at one of the windows on the north side in the hog department. He walked back into the building and a few seconds later those on the outside heard terrible cries, which lasted perhaps half a minute. The man did not appear again and is believed to have been killed.

Two young men who were in the room and left a few minutes before said two failed to escape, but they did not give the names of the men who were said to be employees of the company.

It was not until 7 o'clock that the greatest danger was reached. At that hour the south wall fell with a crash. Several loud explosions had been heard just before as some oil tanks burst in the building. The buildings and machinery were covered by insurance to the extent of about $550,000, and the stock was insured to about $600,000.

CARRIER PIGEON DEPOTS.

Germany's New Plan For Using the Birds as Messengers.

A result of experiments with carrier pigeons, made of late by the German naval authorities, is that permanent stations for the birds are to be established at Helgoland and Wilhelmshaven in the North sea and Friedrichsloort in the Baltic, says the London Globe. Sixty-one carrier pigeon clubs have placed their birds at the service of the German admiralty. The trials made prove that birds can fly home over a distance of 300 kilometers. To insure the delivery of a dispatch for distances of eighty kilometers from land two birds will carry the same message, and for the greater distances up to 300 kilometers from three to five birds will be released, each bearing a copy of the same message. A minimum speed of one kilometer (about two-thirds of a mile) a minute is reckoned upon.

The general practice of sending the message in a quill attached to the tail feather will be abandoned. Instead it will be written on thin vegetable paper, slipped into an india rubber case and secured to the bird's foot by means of an india rubber ring. As the birds arrive at their homes on land the messages will be forwarded to the proper quarters. At the pigeon stations on the North sea coast are wireless telegraphs that will retransmit the message to the head office. In future every war ship, excepting torpedo boats, will be required to carry pigeons to be released at varying distances from the land stations.

CAUSED GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Fireworks Starts Blaze in Chicago Stock Yards District.

Chicago, July 6.—Carelessness with fireworks was the cause of a fire that created great excitement at the stock yards. A blazing rocket was thrown into the stables of M. Newgass & Sons, located at the rear of the Transit House, and the fire was soon beyond control. The Transit House seemed threatened and the excitement among the guests was increased by the noise caused by more than 200 horses that were released from the stables and ran wildly through the streets, their hoofs clattering on the brick pavements. Twenty horses were burned to death. The fire was confined to the Newgass barns.

Chicago, Junction, Ia., July 6.—Sixty-five loaded cars, the transfer house and other smaller buildings, the property of the Baltimore and Ohio, and other property were destroyed by fire Sunday evening. The loss is estimated at $200,000. Three cars of powder were drawn from the transfer house before the fire reached them.

One Man Killed and Another Injured.

Marine City, Mich., July 6.—As the result of a rear-end collision on the Rapid railway, an interurban electric line, three miles from here, Sunday evening, George Oxford was seriously crushed and he died a short time after. John Brahmen escaped with a broken leg.

LOSSES ARE HEAVY.

Fire at Greenville, N. C., Destroys Several Buildings.

Raleigh, N. C., July 2.—Greenville, N. C., experienced a bad fire this morning. The flames started after midnight and burned fiercely for over two hours. It is believed the losses are about $200,000. The fire started in a small restaurant and consumed the market house, the Farmers' warehouse, the Gorman & Wright tobacco factory, the Jordan Tobacco factory, the residences of Mrs. Nellie Harris, Zeno Moore, H. T. King and several smaller buildings. The heat was so intense that the fire department could not cope with the flames for some time. There is no adequate system of waterworks. At 2:30 the fire was placed under control.

Asks Damages of $1,255,000.

Cripple Creek, Colo., July 6.—Suit has been filed in the district court by the Orphan Bell Mining and Milling company against the Isabella Gold Mining company for damages of $1,255,000 for ore alleged to have been wrongfully extracted from the property of the first named company during the years 1898-9.

ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE

Men Held for the Beating of Officer Preston Must Face More Serious Charge.

MINIMUM PENALTY SEVEN YEARS

Preliminary Examination is Set for Wednesday Morning at 10 O'clock.

Rube Dewar, Andrew Johnson, Axel Sundberg and Edward Travees, the men being held for assaulting Officer Preston on Thursday night last in East Brainerd, were in the municipal court this morning for trial, the charge being assault in the third degree. Their case immediately assumed a more serious aspect when on motion of County Attorney Crane the complaint against them was dismissed, and they were again immediately taken into custody on a charge of assault in the first degree, an offense the minimum penalty for which is seven years imprisonment. County Attorney Crane stated that on examination he found the offense so much more serious than he first understood that his duty required him to prefer the more serious charge.

The men appeared in court without an attorney, intending to ask for a continuance until this afternoon, when Attorney A. D. Polk, who is out of the city, returned. But the new charge not being triable in the municipal court, the preliminary examination was fixed by the court for Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Bail could not be fixed by Judge Warner for so serious an offense and the men were remanded to jail without bail until the examination. It is understood, however, that application will be made to the district court to fix bail that the men may be released.

TO DEVOTE TIME TO POLITICS.

Senator Hanna Discovers of Business Requiring Personal Oversight. Cleveland, O., July 6.—According to a statement which the Leader prints this morning, Senator M. A. Hanna has disposed of all his business interests which required his personal oversight and is now merely a stockholder in but one or two of the several concerns in which he was largely interested. The reason for this, the Leader states, is to give the senator more time to devote to politics, the senator having come to the conclusion that he cannot do justice to private business and politics at the same time.

Senator Hanna left for the East Sunday afternoon. He will take an extended trip on the private yacht of Mr. C. A. Griscom, beginning within a day or two. Miss Hanna and Mr. Phelps, the latter a relative, accompanied him East.

The explosion of one stick distributed the other sticks around a radius of 200 feet, saving the building and lives of seventeen employees.

General Manager George B. Tripp has offered $5,000 reward for the persons who made the attempt. There is no clue, and he stated there is no trouble between the company and its employees.

BENJ. R. HENRY IS ADJUDGED INSANE

Ordered Committed to the Insane Hospital at Fergus Falls by Judge Sanborn.

HE ROBBED A TILL AT STAPLES

And was Brought Back to This City this Morning and Lodged in Jail.

Benjamin R. Henry, the young man who has been working in the division storekeeper's office at the shops in this city, was taken before Judge Sanborn of the probate court late this afternoon to be examined as to his sanity, was adjudged insane and was ordered committed to the hospital at Fergus Falls.

This is the young man who brought suit against his wife for divorce some time ago, and it seems that the affair has worked upon him so that he has become mentally deranged. Drs. Groves and Reimstead were called in consultation with Judge Sanborn and the man was found to be very bad off mentally.

He heard yesterday, it is stated, that he was to be arrested and examined and so boarded a train and went to Staples. While there he is said to have robbed a till in a saloon of some $16 in money. The officials there saw that he was off and telephoned his friends here. Rev. S. W. Hoyer went to Staples and brought him back.

A SURGICAL DISCOVERY.

New Method of Joining the Intestines to the Stomach.

A new method of joining the intestines to the stomach in the operation of gastro enterotomy, used principally in cases of cancer, has, it is announced, been discovered and is expected to be of great service in reducing the danger of the operation, says the New York Tribune. So far the process has been tried only on a dog, but it is intended to apply it soon to human beings. Not only is the method useful in cases of forming a new union between the stomach and the intestines, but it has been used with success in joining different portions of the intestines. Dogs on whom the operation has been performed have lived in perfect comfort, so far as could be ascertained, and when afterward they have been killed for purposes of examination the union has been found to be perfect.

As formerly performed the operation of joining the wall of the intestine to the wall of the stomach has not been wholly satisfactory in all cases. The intestine is sewed to the wall of the stomach, and an opening is made to the inside of the stomach. The opening, however, is apt to spread and spoil the union.

Improvements on this simple form have been made by which bone plates are introduced to hold the edges of the opening together, or a button somewhat like the patent clasp on a glove, called Murphy's button, is used to snap the intestines and stomach together. Afterward the button works out, leaving a round hole. Both these methods have the disadvantage of introducing hard foreign bodies into the intestines, which may work out through the walls and cause trouble. Moreover, they sometimes have to be so small that they do not leave a large enough opening.

Another method is to take a stitch with an elastic band inside the circle of stitches joining the walls together. Necrosis, or death of the tissues, takes place under this stitch, and by the slit thus formed the desired opening is produced. This, however, is not always satisfactory, as a slit, unlike a round hole, is apt to become clogged and the union of the walls of the intestines and stomach is sometimes imperfect.

The new method, on which Draper Maury, a third year student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, in New York, has made a number of successful experiments and which is soon to be made known to the medical profession under the auspices of Dr. R. F. Weir, is a modification of this last plan. Instead of the elastic band forming a straight line, producing a slit, the band is sewed inside the joining stitches in such a way as completely to shut off the blood supply from a small portion of the intestine and of the stomach wall. Here necrosis takes place in a circle, with the result that an opening is formed large enough to meet all requirements and without introducing solid bodies into the intestine.

Dogs on whom the operation has been performed have lived in perfect comfort, so far as could be ascertained, and when afterward they have been killed for purposes of examination the union has been found to be perfect.

As formerly performed the operation of joining the wall of the intestine to the wall of the stomach has not been wholly satisfactory in all cases. The intestine is sewed to the wall of the stomach, and an opening is made to the inside of the stomach. The opening, however, is apt to spread and spoil the union.

Improvements on this simple form have been made by which bone plates are introduced to hold the edges of the opening together, or a button somewhat like the patent clasp on a glove, called Murphy's button, is used to snap the intestines and stomach together. Afterward the button works out, leaving a round hole. Both these methods have the disadvantage of introducing hard foreign bodies into the intestines, which may work out through the walls and cause trouble. Moreover, they sometimes trouble to be so small that they do not leave a large enough opening.

Another method is to take a stitch with an elastic band inside the circle of stitches joining the walls together. Necrosis, or death of the tissues, takes place under this stitch, and by the slit thus formed the desired opening is produced. This, however, is not always satisfactory, as a slit, unlike a round hole, is apt to become clogged and the union of the walls of the intestines and stomach is sometimes imperfect.

The new method, on which Dr. Draper Maury, a third year student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, in New York, has made a number of successful experiments and which is soon to be made known to the medical profession under the auspices of Dr. R. F. Weir, is a modification of this last plan. Instead of the elastic band forming a straight line, producing a slit, the band is sewed inside the joining stitches in such a way as completely to shut off the blood supply from a small portion of the intestine and of the stomach wall. Here necrosis takes place in a circle, with the result that an opening is formed large enough to meet all requirements and without introducing solid bodies into the intestine.

MAN HIT BY ENGINE AND WAS KILLED

Peter Olson Hit by a Freight Engine near Backus Early Saturday Morning.

HE WAS LYING ON THE TRACK

And was thought to Have been Hit While in a Semi-Unconscious Condition.

Peter Olson, aged fifty years, was hit by a freight engine at the early hour of 2 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth of July and he died from his injuries a short time afterward.

The engine was in charge of Engineer Winter and the man was not seen on the track until it was too late to bring the train to a stop. The man was thrown some distance and it was readily seen that he was quite seriously injured. He was loaded on a light engine and was hurried on toward Walker, but before they had reached there the man had expired.

It was thought after examination that the man was in a drunken stupor and was asleep on the track. He was a laborer and had worked for some time on an extra gang on the M. & I. He had evidently been to Backus on a sort of pre-celebration the night before the Fourth, and in trying to find his way home went to sleep on the track.

Olson at one time lived in this city, but as near as can be learned he has no relatives here. He was a single man.

Former Brainerd Ladies are Members.

The Duluth Herald contains the follow notice of the organization of a Ladies Auxiliary of the B. L. E. in that city, which will be of local interest because practically all the members were at one time residents of this city:

"W. A. McGonagie Division No. 299, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was organized in this city on Saturday of last week by Mrs. James Haley, of St. Paul. In the evening a public installation and banquet was given at Columbia hall, Mrs.
Haley acting as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Ryerse, of Proctorknott division, and Mrs. Anderson of Superior division. The following officers were installed: President Mrs. J. E. Goodman; vice president, Mrs. Willard Lincoln; secretary, Mrs. J. A. McLish; treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Mentzer; chaplain, Mrs.
A. A. Brewer; insurance secretary, Mrs.
J. A. Marshall; guide, Mrs. Sands-Van-Wagner; sentinel, Mrs. Thomas Bardsley; past president, Mrs. H. H. Scobie; marshalls, Mrs. A. C. Farrar, Mrs. G. F.
Watson; pillars, Mrs. Charles Emerson, Mrs. J. A. Cullen, Mrs. G. T. Rich, Mrs.
U. Dahl; musician, Mrs. F. G. Clayton.
Before the banquet a program was rendered by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra assisted by soloists."

NOW-WILL YOU GO.

The Two Big Shows Have Consolidated and will Give Two Grand Performances at Brainerd, July 16th.

Thursday, July 16th will be Brainerd's big day, two big shows in one day under the combined canvas capacity, at one price of admission is something unusual in show business, but it will be attempted in Brainerd, and from press notices at hand, Sells & Downs are equal to the task. It is so long since Brainerd has seen two big shows in one that to the amusement loving public it will be a novelty, and the unloading of trains, placing of immense tents, paraphernalia etc., and the many new and novel features in the free street parades will be worth going many miles to see. The performances of both shows will be given under the same tents and on account of the lengthy programme will start promptly at two and eight p. m., on Thursday, July 16th.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

It was Celebrated in Divers Ways By the People of the City of the Pines.

Another Fourth has come and gone and aside from the sad drowning at Rice lake no other accident or injuries are reported. The day was a quiet one in the city aside from the incessant discharge of firecrackers, torpedoes, pistols and other devilish implements of the small boy to create a noise, the ball game in the afternoon at Athletic park, and the dance by the Marine band in Gardner hall in the evening, being the only diversion.

A large crowd, however, attended the U. O. F. picnic at Gilbert lake, and a very pleasant day was reported by all attending. The picnic at Rice lake also was largely attended, and large numbers went to Long lake and other country picnics and celebrations to spend the day and all places report good times, notwithstanding the weather in the morning was very inclement. By 10 o'clock the rain ceased and at noon the skies cleared and the balance of the day was cool and delightful, giving all an opportunity for enjoyment.

BRAINERD MAN'S ESCAPE.

E. J. Fulton, Formerly of the City, Has a Very Close Call to Drowning At Rapid River

Two of the estimators who have been at work for the government on the Chippewa reservation lands had a narrow escape from death recently on Rapid river, says the Duluth News-Tribune.

A party, composed of F. W. Rayburn, Thomas A. Bury, E. J. Fulton and E. T.
Bigelow, was coming down the stream, and when about three miles from the mouth, where the Rapid river empties into the Rainy river, the waters became very swift and perilous. The came to a point where it seemed necessary to portage for a distance of eighty rods. The boat was heavy, and was carrying a large quantity of supplies, in addition to packs and blankets. It was decided that two of the men should carry the packs and blankets around the long rapids, and the other two would go down with the boat. Mr. Rayburn at first agreed to take the boat and supplies down alone, but Fulton called out that he would go along, and they started down. It was a hair-raising ride from the start. The boat was steered by Rayburn, who is skilled in all of the arts of forest and stream. The boat shot by boulders, around and over which the water lashed itself into foam. It passed a hundred seen and unseen danger, and when well toward the end of the thrilling journey the boat struck a boulder and was upside down in an instant. The accident happened as they were approaching a deep pool of dead water. Both managed to secure footing, and got to the shore. The boat was recovered half a mile below the rapids, but the supplies, with the exception of a sack of oat meal and a can of condensed milk, were lost. And this is all they had to eat for a day and a half, when they arrived where they were able to secure a new outfit of supplies.

BASE BALL NUBS

Two games of ball were pulled off on Saturday and Sunday between the Elks' team and the regular Brainerd team, and they were certainly fierce, as the score would indicate. On Saturday Dr.
Watkins was on the slab for the Elks' and J. Boyle for the regulars, and up to the seventh inning it was a very pretty game, the score being 3 to 2 but in this inning the Doctors' arm played out and he was batted unmercifully, the final score being 17 to 3 in favor of the regular team. The attendance was not large about 250 paying admission.

On Sunday Henry Tache was in the box for the Elks and J. Boyle again pitched for the regulars. Tache was a snap for the regulars and they batted him at pleasure, the score being 23 to 2 in favor of the regulars. The attendance Sunday was smaller than the previous day, not being over 150.

WOMAN DROWNED AT RICE LAKE

Mrs. Annie Mykkanen, of East Brainerd, Drowned in Rice Lake While Bathing

THE BODY WAS RECOVERED.

In About An Hour but Life was Extinct—Two Girls saw the Accident.

A most distressing and unfortunate accident occurred at Rice Lake on Saturday afternoon, where the members of the Finnish Lutheran church were holding a picnic, by which Mrs. Annie Mykkanen, wife of Henry Mykkanen, lost her life. The unfortunate lady with her husband and four children, was attending the picnic on the island between Rice lake and the river. About three o'clock she took two of the eldest of her children, leaving her husband in charge of the youngest, a mere baby, and went around a point to go in bathing. While enjoying her swim she got on a log which floated into deep water unawares, and when she jumped off she sank over her head and was drowned. Her two children saw the accident but were unable to procure assistance in time to save her life. Deceased is said to have been a good swimmer and it is thought she must have been seized with cramps and was unable to help herself. The alarm being given every effort was made to recover her body, which was found after an hour's search but life was extinct.

Coroner Osterlund was summoned and arrived shortly after five o'clock, but that it was an accident was so evident that no inquest was deemed necessary.

Deceased was 28 years of age and leaves a husband and four small children to mourn her loss. They resided at 1107, 4th avenue in East Brainerd, and she was held in much esteem by her acquaintances in that vicinity. Mr.
Mykkanen was superintendent of the Sunday school and worked in the N. P. blacksmith shop. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

A little life may be sacrificed to an hour's delay. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

Give too Much.

Gollmar Bros. are good. The great Gollmar Bros. circus favored Belleane a visit Tuesday and brought us the largest crowd seen here for years. It was a well satisfied crowd, too, as the big three ring show did just what was advertised on the bills. The menagerie, too, was strictly fine. The three rings and stage were kept going all through the performance by first class riders, acrobats, acrobats, jugglers, wire walkers and contortionists. In fact they give too much for the money. We desire to especially commend the gentlemanly management. They are all men who do business "on the square" and are sure to grow and prosper.—Belleane

Pleased With St. Cloud Library.

R. K. Whiteley and W. A. Fleming, prominent Brainerd men who were in the city on business, last evening inspected the new Carnegie library in view of the fact that their own city is about to build a library. Mr. Carnegie having given them $12,000 for the purpose. They were shown through the institution by Librarian Brick and were surprised and pleased at the convenience of arrangement, the architectural beauty and the pleasing interior decoration. Especially did the auditorium plan suggest itself as a desirable feature.
Judge Fleming has been somewhat opposed to the library idea as developed by Carnegie, but he goes home entirely reformed and prepared to do everything in his power to assist Brainerd in securing a library commensurate with its size. He will suggest to the members of the library board the wisdom of coming to St. Cloud and inspecting this library before making a contract for the plans for their own library.—St. Cloud the line of fistic encounters, and whether it is the quality of the alcoholic bever-exactly determined. Following in the the path of the fiasco in East Brainerd on Thursday night there was a warm battle on Laurel street Friday night in which several got their faces hacked pretty badly, and then again on Saturday night there was a row at the dance in Gardner hall which culminated in a bad mixup in the alley afterward, in which clubs, rocks and sandbags were used and the police were powerless. No

The Great Sells and Downs Shows.

The Omaha Bee said: "We have been reading lately many complimentary comments on the greatly increased size and unquestioned merit of the newly equipped great Sells & Downs shows, now touring the west, but were agreeably surprised today, first by the magnitude of the show as a whole, as it came in sections on its elegantly constructed trains, and again by its stupendous, clean and novel parade. A show never presented a more gorgeous pageant.
We visited the grounds later on a business errand, and again met a surprise.
The show is absolutely new throughout and covers not only the entire show lot, but all the streets surrounding them.
The tents at the afternoon performance were packed with visitors, and the circus program, for novelty, great features, comedy and real attractiveness, is far superior to anything offered to an Omaha audience for many years, and we have had all of the so-called big shows."

The Great Sells & Downs shows will exhibit in Brainerd on Thursday, July 16th.

Peter Olson, aged fifty years, was hit by a freight engine at the early hour of 2 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth of July and he died from his injuries a short time afterward.

The engine was in charge of Engineer Winter and the man was not seen on the track until it was too late to bring the train to a stop. The man was thrown some distance and it was readily seen that he was quite seriously injured. He was loaded on a light engine and was hurried on toward Walker, but before they had reached there the man had expired.

It was thought after examination that the man was in a drunken stupor and was asleep on the track. He was a laborer and had worked for some time on an extra gang on the M. & I. He had evidently been to Backus on a sort of pre-celebration the night before the Fourth, and in trying to find his way home went to sleep on the track.

Olson at one time lived in this city, but as near as can be learned he has no relatives here. He was a single man.

The Duluth Herald contains the following notice of the organization of a Ladies Auxiliary of the B. L. E. in that city, which will be of local interest because practically all the members were at one time residents of this city:

"W. A. McGonagie Division No. 299, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was organized in this city on Saturday of last week by Mrs. James Haley, of St. Paul. In the evening a public installation and banquet was given at Columbia hall. Mrs. Haley acting as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Ryerse, of Proctorknott division, and Mrs. Anderson of Superior division. The following officers were installed: President Mrs. J. E. Goodman; vice president, Mrs. Willard Lincoln; secretary, Mrs. J. A. McLish; treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Mentzer; chaplain, Mrs. A. A. Brewer; insurance secretary, Mrs. J. A. Marshall; guide, Mrs. Sands-Van-Wagner; sentinel, Mrs. Thomas Bardsley; past president, Mrs. H. H. Scobie; marshalls, Mrs. A. C. Farrar, Mrs. G. F. Watson; pillars, Mrs. Charles Emerson, Mrs. J. A. Cullen, Mrs. G. T. Rich, Mrs. U. Dahl; musician, Mrs. F. G. Clayton. Before the banquet a program was rendered by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra assisted by soloists."

The Two Big Shows Have Consolidated and will Give Two Grand Performances at Brainerd, July 16th.

Thursday, July 16th will be Brainerd's big day, two big shows in one day under the combined canvas capacity, at one price of admission is something unusual in show business, but it will be attempted in Brainerd, and from press notices at hand, Sells & Downs are equal to the task. It is so long since Brainerd has seen two big shows in one that to the amusement loving public it will be a novelty, and the unloading of trains, placing of immense tents, paraphernalia etc., and the many new and novel features in the free street parades will be worth going many miles to see. The performances of both shows will be given under the same tents and on account of the lengthy programme will start promptly at two and eight p. m., on Thursday, July 16th.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

It was Celebrated in Divers Ways By the People of the City of the Pines.

Another Fourth has come and gone and aside from the sad drowning at Rice lake no other accident or injuries are reported. The day was a quiet one in the city aside from the incessant discharge of firecrackers, torpedoes, pistols and other devilish implements of the small boy to create a noise, the ball game in the afternoon at Athletic park, and the dance by the Marine band in Gardner hall in the evening, being the only diversion.

A large crowd, however, attended the U. O. F. picnic at Gilbert lake, and a very pleasant day was reported by all attending. The picnic at Rice lake also was largely attended, and large numbers went to Long lake and other country picnics and celebrations to spend the day and all places report good times, notwithstanding the weather in the morning was very inclement. By 10 o'clock the rain ceased and at noon the skies cleared and the balance of the day was cool and delightful, giving all an opportunity for enjoyment.

BRAINERD MAN'S ESCAPE.

E. J. Fulton, Formerly of the City, Has a Very Close Call to Drowning At Rapid River

Two of the estimators who have been at work for the government on the Chippewa reservation lands had a narrow escape from death recently on Rapid river, says the Duluth News-Tribune.

A party, composed of F. W. Rayburn, Thomas A. Bury, E. J. Fulton and E. T. Bigelow, was coming down the stream, and when about three miles from the mouth, where the Rapid river empties into the Rainy river, the waters became very swift and perilous. The came to a point where it seemed necessary to portage for a distance of eighty rods. The boat was heavy, and was carrying a large quantity of supplies, in addition to packs and blankets. It was decided that two of the men should carry the packs and blankets around the long rapids, and the other two would go down with the boat. Mr. Rayburn at first agreed to take the boat and supplies down alone, but Fulton called out that he would go along, and they started down. It was a hair-raising ride from the start. The boat was steered by Rayburn, who is skilled in all of the arts of forest and stream. The boat shot by boulders, around and over which the water lashed itself into foam. It passed a hundred seen and unseen danger, and when well toward the end of the thrilling journey the boat struck a boulder and was upside down in an instant. The accident happened as they were approaching a deep pool of dead water. Both managed to secure footing, and got to the shore. The boat was recovered half a mile below the rapids, but the supplies, with the exception of a sack of oat meal and a can of condensed milk, were lost. And this is all they had to eat for a day and a half, when they arrived where they were able to secure a new outfit of supplies.

Two games of ball were pulled off on Saturday and Sunday between the Elks' team and the regular Brainerd team, and they were certainly fierce, as the score would indicate. On Saturday Dr. Watkins was on the slab for the Elks' and J. Boyle for the regulars, and up to the seventh inning it was a very pretty game, the score being 3 to 2 but in this inning the Doctors' arm played out and he was batted unmercifully, the final score being 17 to 3 in favor of the regular team. The attendance was not large about 250 paying admission.

On Sunday Henry Tache was in the box for the Elks and J. Boyle again pitched for the regulars. Tache was a snap for the regulars and they batted him at pleasure, the score being 23 to 2 in favor of the regulars. The attendance Sunday was smaller than the previous day, not being over 150.

WOMAN DROWNED

AT RICE LAKE

Mrs. Annie Mykkanen, of East Brainerd, Drowned in Rice Lake While Bathing

In About An Hour but Life was Extinct—Two Girls saw the Accident.

A most distressing and unfortunate accident occurred at Rice Lake on Saturday afternoon, where the members of the Finnish Lutheran church were holding a picnic, by which Mrs. Annie Mykkanen, wife of Henry Mykkanen, lost her life. The unfortunate lady with her husband and four children, was attending the picnic on the island between Rice lake and the river. About three o'clock she took two of the eldest of her children, leaving her husband in charge of the youngest, a mere baby, and went around a point to go in bathing. While enjoying her swim she got on a log which floated into deep water unawares, and when she jumped off she sank over her head and was drowned. Her two children saw the accident but were unable to procure assistance in time to save her life. Deceased is said to have been a good swimmer and it is thought she must have been seized with cramps and was unable to help herself. The alarm being given every effort was made to recover her body, which was found after an hour's search but life was extinct.

Coroner Osterlund was summoned and arrived shortly after five o'clock, but that it was an accident was so evident that no inquest was deemed necessary.

Deceased was 28 years of age and leaves a husband and four small children to mourn her loss. They resided at 1107, 4th avenue in East Brainerd, and she was held in much esteem by her acquaintances in that vicinity. Mr. Mykkanen was superintendent of the Sunday school and worked in the N. P. blacksmith shop. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

A little life may be sacrificed to an hour's delay. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

Give too Much.

Gollmar Bros. are good. The great Gollmar Bros. circus favored Belleaire a visit Tuesday and brought us the largest crowd seen here for years. It was a well satisfied crowd, too, as the big three ring show did just what was advertised on the bills. The menagerie, too, was strictly fine. The three rings and stage were kept going all through the performance by first class riders, acrobats, jugglers, wire walkers and contortionists. In fact they give too much for the money. We desire to especially commend the gentlemanly management. They are all men who do business "on the square" and are sure to grow and prosper.—Belleaire Times.

Pleased With St. Cloud Library.

R. K. Whiteley and W. A. Fleming, prominent Brainerd men who were in the city on business, last evening inspected the new Carnegie library in view of the fact that their own city is about to build a library. Mr. Carnegie having given them $12,000 for the purpose. They were shown through the institution by Librarian Brick and were surprised and pleased at the convenience of arrangement, the architectural beauty and the pleasing interior decoration. Especially did the auditorium plan suggest itself as a desirable feature. Judge Fleming has been somewhat opposed to the library idea as developed by Carnegie, but he goes home entirely reformed and prepared to do everything in his power to assist Brainerd in securing a library commensurate with its size. He will suggest to the members of the library board the wisdom of coming to St. Cloud and inspecting this library before making a contract for the plans for their own library.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

Brainerd is certainly getting a reputation of being something very fierce in the line of fist encounters, and whether it is the quality of the alcoholic beverages some have been imbibing or whether it is "jes in un" the police have not exactly determined. Following in the the path of the fiasco in East Brainerd on Thursday night there was a warm battle on Laurel street Friday night in which several got their faces backed pretty badly, and then again on Saturday night there was a row at the dance in Gardner hall which culminated in a bad mixup in the alley afterward, in which clubs, rocks and sandbags were used and the police were powerless. No arrests were made in the last two named fights.

The Omaha Bee said: "We have been reading lately many complimentary comments on the greatly increased size and unquestioned merit of the newly equipped great Sells & Downs shows, now touring the west, but were agreeably surprised today, first by the magnitude of the show as a whole, as it came in sections on its elegantly constructed trains, and again by its stupendous, clean and novel parade. A show never presented a more gorgeous pageant. We visited the grounds later on a business errand, and again met a surprise. The show is absolutely new throughout and covers not only the entire show lot, but all the streets surrounding them. The tents at the afternoon performance were packed with visitors, and the circus program, for novelty, great features, comedy and real attractiveness, is far superior to anything offered to an Omaha audience for many years, and we have had all of the so-called big shows."

The Great Sells & Downs shows will exhibit in Brainerd on Thursday, July 16th.

CLOUDBURST KILLS SCORES OF PEOPLE

Greensburg, Pa., July 6.—A waterspout of immense proportions striking in the vicinity of Oakford park Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, created a flood that caused great loss of life and
persons lost their lives, and rumors place the number of dead at more than 100, but up until a late hour last night only three or four bodies had been recovered, having been washed to the
parallel with the park. The names of those known and believed to have been drowned are:

Edward O'Brien of Latrobe, Joseph Overly of Indianapolis, Ind., employed by Brown, Ketcham company of Greensburg; Lucy Crum of Jeannette, Councillman John Light, wife and two children of Greensburg.

Rain Falls in Torrents.

At 2 o'clock rain began to fall in torrents in the vicinity of the park and spread over a territory covering probably ten miles. A half hour later the cloudburst occurred and the umbrellas carried by the crowds of peo-
water in the lake of Oakford park began to swell, and Manager James Mc-Grath, believing there was danger of
dam, hurried among the crowds of pleasure seekers, who had gathered under the roofs of the eating stands, the merry pavilion and other buildings in line of the water if the banks should break, and warned them to run to the hills.

On both sides of the pleasure grounds there are high hills, the park being located in a ravine about a fourth of a mile wide and a mile long.
The people being protected from the rain were loath to leave the cozy places, and not until Mr. McGrath and his assistant, Charles Thomas, entered each building in turn and simply drove the crowds out into the rain did they realize that the park's managers were in earnest, that earnestness being depicted in their pale faces, for they knew after careful study of the dam that a full flood meant probably the breaking of the wall that held five acres of water.

Half an hour after the buildings had been cleared of the people the waters mounted the walls of the dam and within a few minutes water to the depth of five feet was flowing over the en-
park, studded with buildings containing amusements, were twisted about
large lunch stand were wrenched from their foundations.

The rain continued to fall in torrents
and at 4 o'clock 40 feet of the wall of the dam to the east gave way with a crash. The flood beat down the ra-
two miles. A half mile down at the junction of the Greensburg and Jeannette and the park car lines the car barns are located. The barns were
driver the huge posts were hurled by
were the small waiting rooms and on the track was standing a car laden with people on their way from Greenburg and Jeannette. The electric storm had rendered the powerhouse useless and the motorman was unable
waiting room, containing probably a dozen people. A number of them struggled to a point of safety, but in the confusion that followed it is not
street car was caught and swept into the creek and whirled and tumbled about. A number of people in the car jumped off and there are conflicting stories as to the number of persons who were carried with the car.

Among those who were washed into the flood was C. M. McLain of Green-
Overly and Misses Keefe and Crum.
Young McLain is an expert swimmer and has exceptional courage. The cries for help from the two unknown women brought the young man to their
waist he kept their heads above water as the three were carried in the direction of Jeannette by the rising tide. The brave lad held to the water for more than a mile, and then exhausted and ready to sink to his death he released his hold and the water sank. It was with the greatest difficulty that he managed to get to
up to a late hour at night the names of the women were not known. It is believed that fully ten people who

Standing on the platform near the waiting room there was a man and wife, whose names have not been

band escaped, but the wife was carried away.

It is said that the people resided at Jeannette. It was 6 o'clock when the first messenger bearing the news of the terrible catastrophe reached Greensburg.

The park is patronized by the people of this town and Jeannette and when the fact was announced that the dam had given way and rumor said that
of the crowd of 800, excitement knew no bounds.

beyond this.

Among those known to be lost were

Large Lake Formed.

The flood kept on down Brush creek to about three hundred yards east of Jeannette. Here the Pennsylvania railroad embankment, which is very high at this point, checked the torrent and a comparatively deep lake covering over twenty acres of ground
expected the greater number of the
were a great number of heroic rescues from flooded homes, which at any moment were liable to topple over or be carried away by the flood. Here Brush creek joined its forces with Jeannette creek, and together they continued on their progress of destruction. Penna town but a short distance from Jeannette, was the next victim. Here the water was twenty feet deep and there are known to be three victims.
Mrs. Liza, colored, with her four children, occupied a small frame house.
The building was carried away and
but two of the children saved. The mother and the other two children were drowned.

Great destruction of property resulted at Manor and Larimer, and Greenburg suffered still more severely. The greater part of the latter little city was under water, but no lives are re-
track twenty-five valuable race horses were drowned. The total loss by the flood, it is estimated, will reach $800-000.

Officials Act Promptly.

When the news of the disaster reached Jeannette, the mayor and
looking toward the recovery of the dead and to the relief of the living.

George Whitman of West Jeannette was killed and his body was washed away in the water. James Westwood was drowned after he had done all he could for his wife and three children, who were also caught in the flood.
Neighbors saved the wife and children.

Mrs. Levi Baker was ill in bed when the flood came and was drowned.
John McGusky and George Williams were drowned, but the latter's wife was saved. Alex Victor was hurled against a tree and fatally injured. The
and seven children, was caught in the flood and the mother and four of the little ones perished.

An unknown woman's body was found at Manor. Beside her was the body of a child aged five years.

Many people were electrocuted by grasping live wires washed down by the flood.

DAMAGE AT IRWIN.

Probable Loss of Life and Immense Destruction of Property.

Irwin, Pa., July 6.—The sudden rising of Brush creek Sunday evening
breaking of the Oakford dam caused damage in this vicinity of several hundred thousand dollars and probable loss of life.

So sudden was the rise in the stream that the people living along the banks had barely time to run to the hills.
Many houses and other buildings were
and at 9 o'clock the entire freight station at this place was washed from its foundations and carried down the stream, taking with it the Irwin bridge, the steel bridge on the Youghiogheny branch and the iron bridge to the freight yards. Five loaded coal cars on the bridges were
a big volume of water held back by debris at Manor, and this may break at any moment.

MOB IN CONTROL.

Makes Things Lively for a Time at Middlesboro, Mass.

Middlesboro, Mass., July 6.—A mob of young men, angered by the arrest
night, wounded a deputy sheriff by shooting him in the face with a blank cartridge, assaulted a policeman, bombarded the house of a police court judge with stones and stormed the townhouse in an attempt to release the prisoner. They previously had set several fires and when Judge Nathan Washburne, whose house was stoned, found that the local authorities were
telephoned for police assistance. When

a call was issued for the selectmen to meet for action in the emergency.

FIRE UNDER CONTROL.

But Bodies in the Hanna Mine May
Not Be Reached for Some Days.

Hanna, Wyo., July 6.—It is believed the fire in the mine, which was the scene of the recent explosions and consequent heavy loss of life, has been placed under control. The work of removing the debris from the slope is progressing slowly. It is not believed, however, that any attempt will be made to reach the bodies of the en-
elapsed.

Archbishop of Heliopolis.

Rome, July 6.—In the church of the American college, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, Cardinal Martelli, assisted by Archbishop Stoner and Mgr. Panoli, the canon of St. Peter's, consecrated the Very Rev.
Robert Selon, formerly of Jersey City, N. J., as archbishop of Heliopolis.

Germans Deny Cuban Report.

Berlin, July 6.—The German foreign office says the report that Germany intends presenting to the Cuban government claims for an indemnity for
recent war is untrue.

OUR GERMAN CRITICS

Impressions of the Kaiser's Agricultural Party.

AMERICAN HOSPITALITY PRAISED.

Distinguished Visitors Who Have Been Touring the United States Say We Have a Wonderful Country, but Seem Skeptical as to the Profit to Their Land From Their Observations.

Seemingly skeptical as to whether they have gained sufficient knowledge to repay them for their seven weeks' tour through the United States, the delegation of forty-seven Germans sent to this country by the kaiser to study American agricultural methods recently left for their native land, says the New York Times. Before they left they gathered at the Hotel Belvedere in New York the other day at an informal luncheon tendered to John Schulte of the United States department of agriculture, who accompanied them officially.

After the luncheon Erich Speck von Fluegge, imperial counselor on economy and the kaiser's personal representative, was interviewed.

"This is a big country, a great country, a wonderful country," he said.
"We admire it very, very much. But most of all we admire the people. They have been so kind, so hospitable, to us. You have magnificent schools, and the men in charge of them appear to me to be very, very clever men. We marveled at the means you have for supporting your institutions of learning. The agricultural experimental farms especially interested us, for, you know, we came here to learn about your methods of agriculture."

"May I say that you are leaving this country with impressions that will improve your knowledge of agricultural things in general?" the reporter asked.
"No, no; don't say anything about that. Don't say anything about that at all," quickly answered Von Fluegge, shaking his head energetically and holding up his hands. "But you can print in big letters how much we appreciate the hospitality—the splendid hospitality—of the Americans."

Rittmeister Lemcke, who, besides be-
of a feudal estate comprising 6,000 acres, was indignant over sleeping car accommodations on American railroads.

"The Pullman accommodations were
dirty and filthy—too bad for utterance.
We didn't want first class Pullmans, but we wanted at least comfortable accommodations. And then those dirty negro servants who made up our beds, they were something vile."

He was not satisfied with the meals either. "With tremendous sums of money we could purchase meals that were not at all adequate or satisfactory," he said. "At other times the meals we got for less money were very good."

On Rittmeister Lemcke's estate are large forests, and he was especially interested in American woodlands.

doing away with wood in their big forests entirely without thought of the future. In the west we found big piles of wood decaying and not used because it had been cut down without necessity.
So long as the American farmer makes money today he does not think of the future. Within ten years they will have to be importing their building wood from Germany. Our forests will never give out. The cutting is regulated by the government."

Mr. Gain, also a large feudal estate
in the west and cultivate it.

"I will have to use fertilizers though," he said. "The farmers in this country are exploiting the soil without
be much less productive than it is now.
Then they will have to send to Germany for fertilizers."

What impressed itself deepest on the mind of Karl Fuhrmann, a student at Berlin university, was the lack of beer drinking in the American colleges and universities.

"I liked your American universities very much," he said. "They are very well put together. But there is one thing that they miss, and that is beer.
The students here can't have the enthusiasm we have in our German schools by drinking water. It is beer that inspired them."

"The beer they have here is bad.
Even what is called imported beer isn't like what we have there. You can't drink three glasses of the beer here without feeling the effects. That is because there is more alcohol in it.
The imported beer has a lot of alcohol put in it so that it will stand the pas-
You can't buy a cigar that is any good
give a twenty cent cigar to my coachman."

The luncheon was a happy affair with much humorous talking and some singing. The Germans evidently think a great deal of Mr. Schulte. They gave him a handsome silver tea set and many compliments. Then they stood up, and amid a babel of "Hechts!" and

been drowned are:

Greensburg; Lucy Crum of Jeannette, Councilman John Light, wife and two children of Greensburg.

pleasure seekers, who had gathered under the roofs of the eating stands, the merry-go-round, the theater, the dancing pavilion and other buildings in line of the water if the banks should
hills.

his assistant, Charles Thomas, entered each building in turn and simply
ness being depicted in their pale faces,
five acres of water.

park, studded with buildings contain-
their foundations.

with people on their way from Greens-

Among those who were washed into the flood was C. M. McLain of Greens-
Overly and Misses Keefe and Crum.
men for more than a mile, and then ex-
men sank. It was with the greatest

ried away.

It is said that the people resided
first messenger bearing the news of the terrible catastrophe reached Greensburg.

of this town and Jeannette and when
no bounds.

beyond this.

carried away by the flood. Here Bull creek joined its forces with Brush
the water was twenty feet deep and
there are known to be three victims.
Mrs. Liza, colored, with her four children, occupied a small frame house.
were drowned.

ed at Manor and Larimer, and Greens-
flood, it is estimated, will reach $800-000.

Officials Act Promptly.

dead and to the relief of the living.

who were also caught in the flood.
Neighbors saved the wife and children.
Mrs. Levi Baker was ill in bed when

found at Manor. Beside her was the body of a child aged five years.

the flood.

DAMAGE AT IRWIN.

Destruction of Property.

Irwin, Pa., July 6.—The sudden rising of Brush creek Sunday evening
loss of life.

that the people living along the banks
had barely time to run to the hills.
bridge, the steel bridge on the
at any moment.

Middlesboro, Mass.

cartridge, assaulted a policeman, bom-
the prisoner. They previously had set several fires and when Judge Nathan Washburne, whose house was stoned,

meet for action in the emergency.

FIRE UNDER CONTROL.

But Bodies in the Hanna Mine May
Not Be Reached for Some Days.

progressing slowly. It is not believed,
however, that any attempt will be
elapsed.

Archbishop of Heliopolis.

fully decorated for the occasion, Cardinal Martini, assisted by Archbishop Stoner and Mgr. Panioi, the canon of St. Peter's, consecrated the Very Rev.

recent war is untrue.

"This is a big country, a great coun-

"We admire it very much. But

"No, no; don't say anything about that at all," quickly answered Von Fluegge,
preciate the hospitality—the splendid

acres, was indignant over sleeping car
roads. In a loud tone he declared:

dirty and filthy—too bad for utterance.
We didn't want first class Pullmans,

large forests, and he was especially interested in American woodlands.

it had been cut down without necessity.

Mr. Gain, also a large feudal estate
in the west and cultivate it.

be much less productive than it is now.
Then they will have to send to Ger-

mind of Karl Fuhrmann, a student at
universities.

The students here can't have the enthu-
spired them."

"The beer they have here is bad.
Even what is called imported beer isn't like what we have here. You
is because there is more alcohol in it.

ing. The Germans evidently think a

Plan to Convert Spanish Women.

The Protestants of Boston are making contributions to a fund of $80,000 to convert Spanish women. Headquarters will be opened in Madrid, and it will be known as the Gulick Institute.
Bishop Lawrence of the Episcopal church of Boston says it is time for his church to convert the Italians who are settling in that city in large numbers.

AFTER ROSEBUD LANDS.

Sioux Will Soon Be Asked to Sign New Cession Treaty.

Sioux City, Ia., July 6.—Persons who have been interested in the opening of the Rosebud Indian reservation in South Dakota to settlement will be encouraged by the news that the 416-000 acres will be opened soon after the meeting of the next congress. In a letter from Indian Commissioner Jones to Congressman Burke of South Dakota it is stated that Major James Laughlin of the Indian department, who left Washington recently and is now in North Dakota, is to make a new treaty with the Rosebud Indians, which will insure favorable action on the part of congress. The passage of the bill failed at the last congress because it carried an appropriation of $1,500,000 for purchasing the lands.
The new treaty will require the Indians to give the settlers time to pay for the lands—$2.50 per acre—at the time they prove up their claims.
